BRINSFIELD'S BODY FOUND. D. composed Remains Missing Cashier Found Under His Residence.

ATLANTA, March 22 .- The body of Kelly H. Brinsfield, who mysteriously disappeared Jan. 1, was found this morning under his residence in a state of decomposition, indicating that he has been dead since his disappearance. tan Life Insurance company, and an examination of his accounts after his disappearance disclosed a shortage of several thousand daliars. It was supposed that he had left town.

A disagreeable odor coming from under his house led to the investigation, which resulted in finding his body, which was removed to Barclay & Brandon's undertaking establishment, where the coroner held an inquest. The conclusion reached by the jury was that ne had died by his own hand.

The certificate furnished the county physician gives the cause of death "unknown, but from the evidence possibly suicide."

LITTLE ROCK, March 22. - Capron and Dramburg divided the honors of Wednesday. Bennett's colt negotiated a mile in 1:44 1/2, with Crowhurst up, quite handily, while Stanhope's son of Deceiver worked the mile in exactly the same time, but somewhat more impressively. Another good work was that by Miss Bennett, the Russell filly of the Bennett stable, who went the half in 4912. The Sir Dixon and Inspector coits of the same stable worked halves in 5012.

Governor Oates Withdraws.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 22 .- Ex-Governor Oates has withdrawn from the race for United States senator, thus leaving the contest between Morgan and Johnston. General Oates says he cannot afford to imperil Morgan's election by remaining in the field.

Rumored Railroad Deal.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 22.-Rumors are in circulation here that the old Three C's railroad will at an early date pass into the hands of the seaboard Air Line.

Sensickness. A stewardess, after 15 years' service on one of the transatlantic liners-and an opinion on the subject from a person in her position is undoubtedly to be respected-has this to say about seasickness: "Almost everybody is a little sick, but a great many more persons could be less sick than they are if they would only be careful for a Nov 20 near Port Royal if they would only be careful for a day or two before they sail. At the slightest dizziness or nausea I stop eating anything at all for eight or ten whenever any of my family or myhours, and above all I never touch tea at that time. It is the overeating usually before they come on board that makes all the trouble."-New bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Rem-York Post.

An Overcnutions Wife,

An incident occurred at the redemption bureau of the treasury which ought to be a warning to wives. A woman in New England placed $48 in bank bills in the oven of the kitchen stove in order to hide it from her husband. She forgot to take it out, and in the morning he kindled a hot fire and reduced the money to a crisp before his wife remembered where it was. She picked up the ashes, enough to half fill a wineglass, put them in a little box and sent them down to Washington to be redeemed. The experts, by the use of magnifying glasses, identified the bills to the amount of $36 and sent her that money, but it cost her $12 to fool her husband, and she will probably not try it again.-Chicago

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone.
